School of World Mission

Greetings from the School of World Mission (usually known as SWM!) As the year begins, let's get acquainted.

To begin... here is how to find our offices. The Dean's Office is located in Payton 231. This is right in the middle of the mall on the second floor. Many of the SWM professors also have offices around the balcony on this level. The SWM Advising Office is in Payton 229 just around the corner from the Dean's Office. In Glasser Hall (across the mall) you can find the SWM Doctoral Office and several other faculty offices.

Next... who we are. Dr. Woodberry is the new Dean of SWM. Betty Ann Klebe, his secretary is ready to help you in any way she can. Marilyn Clinton is also ready to help as Dr. Woodberry's assistant.

Dr. Elliston, our new Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, is located in the Dean's Office in Payton 231. He is taking over duties for all academic systems in the School of World Mission.

Ulf Lidman heads up the SWM Advising Office in Payton 229 and he and his advisors are willing to assist in any way with your needs. Likewise Betty Mottinger and the doctoral advisors can answer all your doctoral questions. They are located in Glasser Hall 101.

The School of World Mission is very user friendly. Stop by and get acquainted. Look over the course offerings to see if there is something that will be especially helpful to you.

Question... just give us a call or stop by and see us.

School of Theology

We in the School of Theology cordially welcome all students to the joys and challenges of the upcoming year. Several SOT offices will be hosting open houses at Orientation/Registration time. Please stop in and introduce yourself. We look forward to meeting you.

This summer several offices moved to new locations. The Dean's Office and the Office of Academic Programs relocated to the second floor of Payton Hall. Being nearer to the SOT faculty, it is our hope to create a more community-oriented center for students and faculty in the School of Theology. Field Education and Career Service moved to the first floor of Carnell Hall, a location that is easily accessible to students.

There will be new faces around campus: Dr. Marguerite Shuster, former Senior Pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church in Pasadena, has joined the faculty as Associate Professor of Preaching. In addition to teaching homiletics and preaching practica, she will offer a new course in Winter entitled, "Making Doctrine Live." The Reverend Dr. Stanley Long, also a Trustee, will be Interim Director of the African American Ministers Program this year. With the retirement of Dr. Robert Schaper, Dr. Bill Pannell has been appointed to fill the Arthur DeKruyter/Christ Church Oakbrook Chair of Preaching. He will also serve as Dean of Chapel. Dr. Mel Robeck has moved out of an administrative role to a full time faculty position in church history and ecumenics.

Dean William Dyrness and the SOT faculty have returned from a rich summer of travel, research, writing and ministry and look forward to a new year of learning together.

WELCOME TO FULLER

The School of Psychology

Now that you are on campus, there are some SOP staff that you'll want to get to know. Clinical psychology students, get to know Tim Bray, the Ph.D clinical psych. student rep. or Debbie Condiff, the PsyD. rep. Kathy Smith is a wealth of information for the clinical psychology programs.

In the Clinical Psych. programs, there are other staff persons you'll become acquainted with and find a source of support. These secretaries are your "doorways" to the faculty: Lynelle Bush-Drs. Gorsuch, Malony, Smedes; Maryan Hinkel-Dr. Gooden; Nova Hutchins-Dr. Hart; Mary Kendall-Drs. Tan, Bjorck and Steihler-Thurston; Tracey Townsend-Drs. Vande Kemp, Brown, Lipsker; Davon Linder- Drs. Court, Jo Ann Akada and Hunt.

For the MFT division, Colleen Ackerson and Richard Shaw are the reps. and Vernon Nickerson is a helpful resource for information. Tim Sun is Ass't to the Associate Dean of the MFT Programs, willingly listens to your concerns.

Bert Jacklitch, whose responsibilities are wide-ranging is Ass't to the Dean, considers it a privilege to get to know you.

This is an exciting time for us here at Fuller, as well as for you. We are blessed to have you here and to share in this portion of your life's journey. Our prayer is that we might have the opportunity to be a blessing to you.

"HERE" TO SERVE YOU

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

With portraits of Charles Fuller and previous Fuller presidents in place on the wall, the President's Office is settled-in and delighted with its new location in Slessor Hall. Here we visually interact with the Seminary community's active schedule as we meet all the diverse challenges of Fuller's executive branch. Already preparations are well underway for November 1992 and March 1993 Board of Trustees meetings, as well as the presidential transition July 1, 1993. President David Allan Hubbard, Denise Schubert, Shirley Coe, Marilyn Marshall, and Kathleen Thompson are "here" to serve you.

ACADEMIC ADVISING (SOT)

Your academic advisors are here to help you chart your course through the waters of theological education! Our office hours are 8-5pm Monday through Friday, until 5pm on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Don't wait 'til registration to come by - stop in and say "hi." We're located in Stephan Hall.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

- A. Can I be a teaching assistant for my course?
- B. Is there any information on a certain visiting adjunct?
- C. Is there a revised scheduled printed?
- D. How will I know about course changes?
- E. Are the courses scheduled the same each year?

Academic Programs Is The Place To Find Out!

Answers:

- A. If a class has more than 25 students, a faculty member qualifies for a teaching assistant. It's up to the faculty member to decide who they want for an assistant so if you are interested, and the course has more than 25+ students, we suggest you talk to the professor.
- B. If you want to know about a certain adjunct, call Liz Goheen.
- C. Unfortunately, only one integrative schedule is published each year, so no revised schedule.
- D. See your academic advisor.
- E. Course scheduling depends on faculty availability and curricular needs — but we do try to offer every core course at least once a year and every core course in the summer.

We (Bernice Ervin and Liz Goheen) hope these answers are helpful to you as you begin the school year. Come by and see us if you need additional help. Our office is located in Payton Hall, 2nd floor. Have a great year! We're glad you're here.

EMPLOYMENT

JOB HUNTING?

*We have a unique situation here at Fuller where students have the opportunity to minister to other students and to contribute to the world-wide ministry of the Seminary by working in a variety of on-campus jobs. Current position openings are posted on the bulletin board in the Business Office at 535 E. Walnut (the white building just east of Amy's restaurant on the corner of Oakland and Walnut). ## FIELD EDUCATION

FIELD EDUCATION REMINDER

*Participation in a Preparatory Workshop is required for all students enrolled in a Field Education Course for the first time this fall. For your convenience two workshops have been scheduled; however you need only attend one. The workshops will be offered on Wednesday Sept. 30, 1992 6:00-7:00 pm, Payton 101 and on Thursday Oct. 1, 1992 10:00-11:00 am, Payton 101. ## FINANCIAL AID

AFRICAN AMERICAN AND LATIN AMERICAN STUDENTS

The Fund for Theological Education offers large, competitive scholarships for African American and Latin American students who show "high promise for effectiveness in ministries of the Christian churches." Candidates must be US or Canadian citizens, be ordained or an official candidate for ordination, ordinarily be a graduate from an accredited college or university and have at least a 3.0 cumulative g.p.a. Letters of nomination must be received by November 10th, so inquire now.

STUDENT LOANS FOR FALL REGISTRATION (SEPT. 21 - 25)

If your loan check arrives in time, it will be available at the loan desk in the registration line. If your check arrives after registration, you will be notified via your Fuller post office box. Checks cannot be released prior to registration under any circumstances. If your loan application has been approved, but your check has not arrived, you will be on the loans pending list. This will allow you to register with a $100 deposit plus misc. fees. The remaining balance on your account will be deferred.

IMPORTANT BORROWER INFORMATION

Federal regulations specify that you must contact your lender within ten (10) days if you change your enrollment status, name or address; 2) you may owe a refund to your lender if you drop below half-time in a quarter which is part of your loan period (so check with Fin. Aid before you drop classes); 3) Fuller must assess financial aid, including designated grants from outside sources, when loan checks arrive. If total aid received exceeds estimated aid, any overaward must be returned to the lender; 4) Fuller must return unsigned loan checks after thirty (30) days.

BOOKSTORE

The Fuller Bookstore staff welcomes all new and returning students. The best kept secret about the bookstore is that almost all titles are discounted. These discounts are not shown on the price stickers, but are given at the registers. Another well kept secret is the bookstore computer department. Our back-to-school special is going on right now, with bargains of up to 40% off list on many Apple products.

Even if you don't need to buy anything, come by and look at our remodeling project. (We're located at the corner of Union and Los Robles.) A gourmet coffee shop will soon be located in the north wing of the store, allowing you to enjoy a good cup of coffee or espresso while you browse through all those books you'll need for class. And by the end of the year you'll see a whole new look to the rest of the store as well.

With nearly 30 years of cumulative experience, the current bookstore staff—almost entirely of students like yourself—is ready and willing to serve you. We look forward to each of your visits.

Knowing that spiritual formation is important to theological education, Fuller Seminary formed the OCC to help nurture the spirituality of students. One of its major components is the Spiritual Formation Program, consisting of small groups where students can meet for prayer and personal sharing and 20 spiritual directors, with whom students can meet for spiritual mentoring. OCC also develops or promotes retreats and seminars on different aspects of spirituality. OCC also focuses on helping to nurture the marital and family lives of students, through retreats and seminars. The staff are: Thuan Vuong, Program Assistant; Deborah Kehle, Spiritual Formation Intern; and Katie Price, the Marriage and Family Intern. We pray at OCC that your time here will nurture your personal growth and that your walk with God will deepen as a result.

ALL SEMINARY COUNCIL OF, BY, & FOR THE STUDENTS

With the ever increasing cost of your education it is helpful to know that your All Seminary Council is working for the needs of students. Last year Student Fees were $29 per quarter for a full-time student. This Fall students taking less than 7 units will pay $15, and students taking more than 8 units will pay $28. The recipient of these moneys is the All Seminary Council (ASC). The ASC is on campus to represent the students, to be a resource for students, and to facilitate change on behalf of the students. Our desire is to promote community, encourage spiritual growth, and to ensure academic excellence. Listed are a few examples of how we accomplished the above last year:

- * Sent students overseas on short-term summer mission programs.
- * Gave discounted memberships to nearby physical fitness clubs.
- * Allowed over 100 students to use Apple MacIntosh computers in our own library for a nominal fee.
- * Sponsored football, volleyball, softball and other intramural sports leagues among Fuller students.
- * Published a 144 page Yearbook capturing the "essence" of the Fuller experience.
- * Brought various noted speakers to our campus.
- * Supported the development of the new Arts Committee.
- * Maintained vending machines throughout campus for student convenience.
- * Sponsored the production of community events such as the Fuller Follies and the two One Act plays, "Who's Playing God," and "You Cain't Just Let a Man Drown."

The ASC has used these and other means to promote community among students on our campus. Moreover, it is the only independent channel for voicing student concerns to Faculty and Administration. When you have an opportunity, be sure to get in touch with your ASC office or one of the ASC groups that we sponsor.

OUR CITIES IN TROUBLE? 10/1

As Christians who desire to have an impact in our cities, we want to learn and see what God is doing specifically here in Pasadena. Joe Colletti, Fuller adjunct faculty and Director of Lutheran Social Services, will be sharing about opportunities through which we can better understand the urban situation and participate first hand.

On Thursday, October 1st from 1:00-3:00 p.m. there will be a van tour of Pasadena. Joe Colletti will be hosting this information packed event. You will visit homeless shelters, food and clothing programs, transitional housing, and job employment advocacy programs. Space is limited. Please sign up during Orientation Week at the Resource Faire table or leave a message at the Theology Faculty Office, 584-5235.

In three weeks we have lined up a slide show introducing the Fuller Community to the various social services in Pasadena. This will be held in Payton 101. Visit the table at the Resource Faire on Thursday and Friday, September 24th and 25th for more information.
